Brookwood II

The impressive architectural design options of The Brookwood II afford it a sophisticated appearance that is rich in detail. A welcoming front porch may extend the length of the home or sit adjacent to a two-story bay window, while a variety of trim and brick facades offers each home exceptional distinction.

The foyer opens up to a central dining nook which flows into the sun-flooded great room and the kitchen with convenient central workstation and wraparound granite countertops.

Private reflection or quiet conversation is the rule in this spacious study with optional French doors leading back to the foyer.

While each of the four bedrooms is spacious and conveniently located around the central staircase, the master suite offers an optional tray ceiling, L-shaped walk-in closet and huge master bath.
